AFFIDAVIT THOMAS. FINN, JR.

I, Thomas B. Finn, Jr., being duly sworn do hereby state:

1. I am a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and have been so employed for approximately twenty-six years. I am currently assigned to the Lakeville Resident Agency within the District of Massachusetts.

2. I submit this affidavit in support of a criminal complaint charging DANA L. ROWELL with violation of Title 18 U.S.C. § 2113(a) (bank robbery).

3. I have participated in an investigation of a robbery on this date, January 14, 2004, of the Rockland Trust Company, 34 School Street, Brockton, Massachusetts. During the investigation I learned that at approximately 10:31 A.M. on this date, an unknown male entered that branch of the Rockland Trust Company, proceeded to the customer service counter, wrote out a note on a deposit slip, and then presented the note to a teller. The note, which was subsequently recovered at the scene, stated: I HAVE A GUN! I'LL USE IT! 100's + 50's + 20's ON THE COUNTER! The teller gave the robber $1,715 in United States currency. The robber left the bank and fled on foot.

4. Officers of the Brockton Police Department responded to the scene of the robbery and conducted the initial investigation. Bank surveillance photographs of the robber were retrieved and were of high quality.

5. Canvassing of the neighborhood resulted in identification of a witness who advised that the robber was staying with Kenneth Hanks in Apartment 35 at 32 High Street in Brockton. Officers went to that location, knocked on the door, and found ROWELL there. They observed that he matched the bank surveillance photographs of the robber and they arrested him. A search incident to arrest resulted in the seizure of $1,200 in cash. During their initial encounter with ROWELL, he blurted out words to the effect, ♦I did it, what do you want to know?♦

6. ROWELL was transported to the Brockton Police Department, where he was advised of his Miranda rights and signed a written waiver thereof. In the ensuing interview, he admitted that he had robbed the Rockland Trust Company that day. He also admitted to robbing Security Federal Bank at 40 Legion Parkway in Brockton on January 12. 2004. He also admitted to robbing three Boston banks in the recent past but could not recall their precise identities at that time.

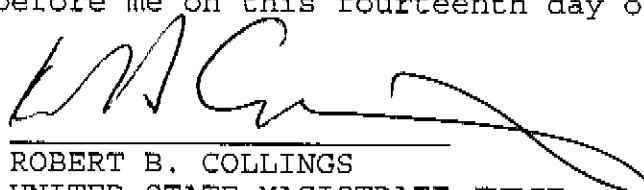

5. I know that the Rockland Trust Company is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC).

Based upon the information above, I believe that there is probable cause to believe that on January 12, 2004, DANA L. ROWELL did by force, violence, and intimidation take from the person and presence of employees of the Rockland Trust Company, located at 34 School Street, Brockton, Massachusetts, money in the amount of $1,200 belonging to and in the care, custody, control, management and possession of said Rockland Trust Company, the deposits of which were then insured by the FDIC, all in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. § 2113(a).
